days without a residence permit, the authority Wunsiedel i. Fichtelgebirge may find it difficult to coordinate appropriate support services in a timely manner. Accordingly, all Ukrainian refugees from the war are given the opportunity to register informally in advance through an online registration portal created for this purpose.

Therefore, the processing of personal data is based on Article 6 (1) (a) of the GDPR, ie with the consent of the persons concerned.

Withdrawal of consent

This consent may be revoked at any time without explanation to the responsible person or the Data Protection Officer. The legality of data processing before receiving a recall remains unchanged. Upon receipt of any recall, the responsible person must immediately delete the relevant data.

Disclosure of their personal data

Your personal data will not be transferred and used only internally by government agencies.

Duration of storage

Your personal data will be deleted as soon as the original purpose of the collection ceases to apply and there are no legal provisions on storage or archiving that would prevent its deletion.

Data subject rights

According to the General Data Protection Regulations, you have the following rights:

If your personal data is processed, you have the right to receive information about the data stored about you (Article 15 of the GDPR).

If incorrect personal data is processed, you have the right to rectification (Article 16 of the GDPR).

If the legal requirements are met, you can request the removal or restriction of processing and object to the processing (Articles 17, 18 and 21 of the GDPR). If you have consented to the processing of data or if there is a data processing contract and the processing is carried out using automated procedures, you may be entitled to the transfer of data (Article 20 GDPR).

If you exercise your above rights, the government will check that the legal requirements have been met.

You can claim the above rights directly from the responsible authority or the data protection officer.

If you have consented to the processing of data (Article 6 (1) (a) of the GDPR), you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time and without explanation of future reasons. The legality of the data processing pending receipt of your recall remains unchanged.

The right to appeal

Under Article 77 of the GDPR, you have the right to lodge a complaint without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy if you believe that the processing of your personal data is unlawful.

This complaint must be lodged by the person who was actually injured with the supervisory authority (here: Bavaria State Data Protection Officer).

Providing data

You are not required by law to do the above. The purpose is to make your personal data available to the responsible person. The transfer of data is voluntary and based solely on your consent.
